

GalleP News releases for event on April 7

For Print for week of March 29th, 2010

The Gallatin Equestrian Partnership, GalleP, is announcing its first annual meeting on Wednesday, April 7, 6-8 pm at the Emerson Cultural Center Ballroom. Directors will share what has been accomplished in the past year as well as their vision for the future. Guest speakers will share experiences of how horse recreation is sustained in other urban areas. A survey will be conducted that will guide development of a regional equestrian park. Refreshments and a silent auction will round out the evening. The public is invited to be a part of the future of equine opportunities in the Gallatin Valley. For more information email gallepmt@yahoo.com or call 406-920-0888.

For Radio beginning 3/22/10

ATTENTION ALL HORSE ENTHUSIASTS!

Come join fellow riders and drivers at Gallatin Equestrian Partnership's First Annual Meeting and Roundup on WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7, FROM 6-8 PM AT THE EMERSON CULTURAL CENTER BALLROOM, in Bozeman.

"GalleP" is dedicated to preserving and creating local riding and driving opportunities for horses in the Gallatin Valley. They invite you to come learn what they accomplished this past year and how they are galloping into the future as Gallatin Valley's advocate for equestrian recreational opportunities. Guest speakers will share experiences of how horse recreation is sustained in other urban areas. Check out their vision for a regional equestrian park and participate in a survey to guide its development. Enjoy free refreshments and look for good deals on dining and equipment at the silent auction.
